

Rhode Island Child Tax Rebate

The State's FY23 budget provides for a Child Tax Rebate to eligible Rhode Island families

What you need to know:

Who is eligible for the Child Tax Rebate?

- Approximately 115,000 Rhode Island households will receive payments.
- To receive a rebate, the eligible taxpayer:
 - Must timely file their Rhode Island 2021 personal income tax return as either:
 - Single, married filing separately, head of household, or qualifying widow/widower with a federal adjusted gross income of $100,000 or less; or
 - Married filing jointly with a federal adjusted gross income of $200,000 or less.
 - And have a qualifying child dependent (eighteen years of age or under as of December 31, 2021).

What is the Child Tax Rebate?

- A rebate payment of $250 per qualifying child, up to a maximum of three children (maximum $750), that will be issued to eligible taxpayers.

Where will my Child Tax Rebate be sent?

- The mailing address on your 2021 Rhode Island Personal Income Tax return.

When will I receive the Child Tax Rebate?

- For those filing by the April 18, 2022 deadline, or filing an amendment by August 31, 2022, your rebate will be issued starting in October 2022.
- For those filing on extension by the October 17, 2022 extended filing deadline, your rebate will be issued starting in December 2022.

The Division of Taxation has created a webpage specifically for the Child Tax Rebate.

The Division will post all updated information on this page - including a rebate payment tracking tool that will allow you to check the status of your rebate.

Due to the limited availability of resources, please visit www.tax.ri.gov/ChildTaxRebate2022 for the most up-to-date information.